All tenants of Senoko Fishery Port and Jurong Fishery Port

SINGAPORE FOOD AGENCY LICENCE

(A) LICENCE TO OPERATE A COLD STORE FOR STORAGE

(B) LICENCE FOR FOOD STALL

The Singapore Food Agency (SFA) would like to remind all tenants that handling, preparation and storage of food for sale are activities that require SFA licences. Operating without or prior to obtaining the SFA licence is an offence.

If you will be operating a space at Jurong Fishery Port for the cold storage of seafood products, a licence to operate a cold store is required. Please submit an application at: https://www.gobusiness.gov.sg/browse-all-licences/singapore-food-agency-\(sfa\)/licence-to-operate-a-coldstore/licence-to-operate-a-coldstore).

If you will be operating a market lot at Jurong Fishery Port to conduct activities such as on-site handling or basic preparation of seafood (limited to degutting, descaling and decapitation of fish) for sale, a SFA food stall licence is required. Please submit the application at https://www.gobusiness.gov.sg/browse-all-licences/singapore-food-agency-\(sfa\)/food-stall-licence/food-stall-licence).

Please note that SFA licences are issued based on the location and the premises where the business operation and activities are carried out. If you have more than one premises at the fishery port, then you would need to apply for the licence accordingly.

If you require clarification on licensing matters, please contact SFA at SFA online feedback form at www.SFA.gov.sg/feedback.
