

List of Licensed Food Stalls (Hawker Centres, Coffeeshops, Canteens, Food Courts) and Food Establishments Providing Catering Services Permitted to Conduct Sale of Ready-To-Eat (RTE) Raw Fish Dishes

With effect from 5 December 2015, all food stalls (hawker centres, coffeeshops, canteens, food courts) and food establishments providing catering services are required to stop the sale of RTE raw fish dishes until they submit proof that they are able to meet the requirements for sale of these dishes. Other food establishments including restaurants that offer dine-in, delivery and takeaway services can continue to sell RTE raw fish dishes using saltwater fish, unless otherwise stated by the Singapore Food Agency (SFA).

Applications received from affected food stalls and food establishments providing catering services for the sale of RTE raw fish dishes have since been assessed and the following list of premises are given approval to sell RTE raw fish dishes.

Members of the public can search and view the records of the retail food establishments approved to sell RTE raw fish dishes at <https://www.sfa.gov.sg/tools-and-resources/track-records>. Alternatively, the records could be accessed through myENV mobile application or by scanning the QR code on the SFA licence that is displayed at the retail food establishment.
