

Recall of a range of Spring Home TYJ Spring Roll Pastry products, Spring Home Samosa Pastry, and Spring Home Chicken Spring Roll due to potential presence of an undeclared milk allergen

The Singapore Food Agency (SFA) has directed a recall of a range of Spring Home TYJ Spring Roll Pastry products, Spring Home Samosa Pastry, and Spring Home Chicken Spring Roll produced by local manufacturer Tee Yih Jia Food Manufacturing Pte Ltd due to the potential presence of an undeclared milk allergen in its products.

2 Tee Yih Jia Food Manufacturing Pte Ltd informed SFA that it had received feedback from a customer in the United Kingdom, which imports its products, on the presence of a milk allergen in its products that was not declared on the labels. It is currently testing its products to confirm the presence of the allergen. As a precautionary measure and as the products are available for sale in Singapore, SFA has directed the manufacturer to recall the products. The recall is ongoing.

3 Consumers who have purchased the affected products, and who are allergic to milk, should not consume it. Consumers may contact the manufacturer, Tee Yih Jia Food Manufacturing Pte Ltd, at 68809888 for enquiries and for exchange or refund of products.

4 Details of the products are as follows.

Affected products: 1) Spring Home TYJ Spring Roll Pastry products 2) Spring Home Samosa Pastry 3) Spring Home Chicken Spring Roll	1) Spring Home TYJ Spring Roll Pastry products
---	---

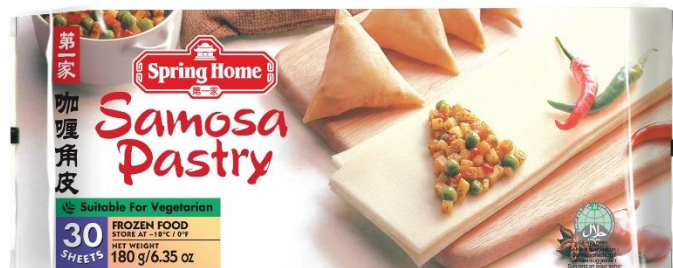

Product of Singapore
Best Before: All dates before
8 February 2023

2) Spring Home Samosa Pastry

3) Spring Home Chicken Spring Roll

Issued by the Singapore Food Agency

11 February 2020