

Food Alert: Singapore-manufactured “QQ Fish brand products” recalled in Canada are not sold in Singapore

The Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) has recently recalled various QQ Fish brand products due to undeclared allergen (egg) on the packaging labels. The affected products were manufactured in Singapore by two companies and exported to Canada for sale. None of the affected QQ Fish brand products are sold in Singapore.

2 The Singapore Food Agency has advised the companies to rectify the packaging labels.
